

Summer Camp for Grownups

PSWIRL sponsors a relaxed camp in the mountains for people who enjoy nature and an interesting program of activities. A theme speaker may provide challenges, information, and philosophy. The setting is one of warmth and acceptance, where people's ideas and feelings are valued and validated. Each person is able to set his/her own goals and program for the week. Daytime activities may be contemplative or active. Evening activities may include dancing, discussions, cards, puzzles, movies, astronomy, improvisation, or a talent show. At the closing ceremony we review the week's camp and provide suggestions for the future.

This camp is like an extended family which functions in an atmosphere of mutual respect and acceptance. It is dedicated to personal growth and social development, and it welcomes new and diverse ideas.

About
 Camp de Benneville Pines

The Pacific Southwest Institute of Religious Liberals has gathered at Camp de Benneville Pines each summer since the 1960s. Located at 6800 feet in the San Bernardino National Forest, de Benneville is surrounded by towering ponderosa pines, oaks and cedars. Barton Creek is nearby and Jenks Lake within walking distance. It is the perfect location to enjoy the natural beauty of the forest.

Delicious meals are served in Homet Lodge, with vegetarian/vegan entrees offered if requested with registrations. Cabins are comfortable if rustic, with shared bathrooms and showers. Dorms sleep six, cabin rooms sleep four and deluxe accommodations include a shared kitchen and sitting area. A limited number of double beds are also available.
